

Choice Hotels International is seeking an full time Architectural Designer to join our upscale brands team at our global headquarters located in Rockville MD. (Metro accessible - Red Line)

We are seeing a candidate with 0-3 years experience (must have had a prior internship if no professional experience has been obtained). Candidate must be proficient in Autocad, Sketch up and Adobe creative products.

Site & space planning experience required, hospitality & multifamily experience is preferred. Must have an architectural degree from an accredited university, professional degree preferred.

Candidate is to be self-motivated, highly organized and a fast learner. Proven strengths to include prioritization, driven to perform within high performance environment and ability to identify and troubleshoot complex challenges in a creative manner.

Candidate will report to Director of Architecture and assist primarily with:

- Site planning and program layout for new build and renovation of existing properties.
- Construction document/specification review
- Construction administration activities
- Collaborate with brand design team to create, implement and document design documents are necessary

National travel (up to 20%) may be required. Competitive package including pay and benefits included.

Please send a copy of your cover letter, resume and portfolio to Ian.Peahota@Choicehotels.com