Number & Title of Course: ARPL211, History of Architecture I, 3 credits.

Course Description:
This course examines the history of world architecture and human settlements from prehistoric times to roughly 700 CE. The cultural, political, religious, ecological, and economic contexts of buildings are critically discussed.

Course Goals & Objectives:
At the conclusion of the course, students will be able to:
- Discuss architectural history of different eras and cultures
- Develop effective communication skills
- Demonstrate an understanding of how the built environment evolves

Student Performance Criterion/a addressed (list number and title):
A.1. Communication Skills
A.3. Visual Communication Skills
A.7. Use of Precedents
A.8. Ordering Systems Skills
A.9. Historical Traditions and Global Cultures
A.10. Cultural Diversity

Topical Outline (include percentage of time in course spent in each subject area):
Research/work on assignments (70%)
Presentation skills (30%)

Prerequisites:
None

Textbooks/Learning Resources:

Offered:
Fall only; annually

Faculty assigned:
Adnan Morshed (F/T)